1. On 1 September 1952 the Chinese Communist Ministry of Public Security ordered that municipal public security bureaus under direct control of the major administrative areas organize finance and economics public security tui (7130). These organizations will be formed to safeguard the financial and economic structure of the nation against interference by counter-revolutionary elements. They will be organized as follows:
  - a. Designation: The (name of city) shih (1579) (i.e., "city" or "municipal") Finance and Economics Public Security (Type of unit). (The unit may be a fen (0433) tui, chung (0022) tui, ta (1129) tui, or tsung (4920) tui, depending upon the size of the force.)<sup>1</sup>
  - b. Organization: The organization of the finance and economics tui will conform to the organization of the public security division garrisoning a particular city. For example, if a public security tsung tui is garrisoning a city, a finance and economics tsung tui will also be formed in that city.
  - c. Source of Personnel: Personnel will be drawn from garrison units now stationed at various financial organizations, factories, mines, and other industrial enterprises.
  - d. Weapons: Weapons will be issued by the shih public security bureau.
  - e. Rations: Rations will be the same as those issued to public security forces.
  - f. Lines of Control: The finance and economics tui will be under the dual control of the shih garrison command and the shih public security bureau.
1.  Comment.  contains an estimate of the strength of the various tui mentioned here.
